

Shadow

Once a century ago there was an unknown island. On that island there was a lab, and not just any lab but a dinosaur lab. The people who worked there had a big jungle. They let real dinosaurs run through that jungle. The boss there was a very smart man called Joe. He had a son coming to visit him. His name was Fionn. Fionn's Mother died from sickness when he was only young. He never got to see his Dad because he was always working.

As a gift Fionn got his own veloceraptor. He named it Shadow. On his way he spotted a cave to stay in. Before he went in Shadow sensed something weird. Fionn turned around. As he was turned around, Shadow felt the warm breath of the Carcharadontasaurus. Then suddenly Fionn felt it too. He turned around and saw the beaming red eyes of it. Then the Carcharadontasaurus crawled out of the cave. Fionn had a poison bomb. He fired at her face and she ran away. Then they went into the cave for the night.

Back the lab, Fionn,s Dad was creating a customised Dinosaur. It was called the Colloselus-rex. When Fionn arrived at the base his Dad was so happy to see him. Then they decided to make a plan to stop the Carcharadontusaurus from killing all the other dinosaurs. The doctor had mixed other Dinosaurs to make hipurn dinosaurs. He planned he would use them to help the guards. So they put out a pile of meat as bate.

The Carcharadontasaurus eventually found the bate. Then suddenly out of nowhere the hipurn dinosaurs came and cornered it. The Dilophasaurus spat asidge on it. The Apatasaurus-sichania bashed it off the cliff and it was stuck at the bottom. They decided to lower a cage over it and do a display of the Colloselus-rex beating it up.

Then an hour after Fionn was looking for his Dad, he found him dead in the lab. Then he couldn't find any of the dinosaurs either. Fionn went home to his grand-parents sadly.

The Big Mansion

One dark night Robert was walking home to his house in LA. It was all going fine until he heard something. It sounded like it was coming from the hedge. Then suddenly a man jumped from the hedge. The man was dressed all in black.

Robert almost got a heart attack but he didn't. He just ran. The man had a pickaxe. He kept chasing Robert. Then Robert realised that the man chasing him was faster than him. He had to just find cover. He ran towards a huge mansion. The grounds around the mansion were huge. There was even a graveyard. Then suddenly the man chasing him tripped on an uneven part of the footpath. Robert rang the doorbell of the mansion.

A woman answered the door. Robert told the woman everything and how the man was chasing him with the pickaxe. When she heard that she let him in straight away. She gave him her room because she doesn't sleep. The room was huge. The bed could hold at least ten people. There was a 90 inch plasma screen TV and tonnes of other items.

The next morning Robert woke up. He went downstairs to ask the woman what was for breakfast. The woman replied "I don't eat, I survive on water". So Robert said "Goodbye" and quickly walked out the door. The minute Robert walked out the door, he heard a bang. There were explosives coming from somewhere. Then a second after he heard the explosives again. He was attacked by what looked to be the same man who attacked him last night. Only this time, the man had a sword.

As last night he ran and the man chased him only this time Robert ran into one of the man's traps and when he stepped into the trap he kept falling down and down until he hit the bottom. The man later got collected by another man and they drove away.

Robert has been stuck there for 16 days already. On the 17th day someone walking by dropped their mobile phone into the hole and kept walking. Robert immediately picked up the phone and rang police. The police later arrived. They bought a crane. The man driving the crane put the crane down the hole and picked up Robert. Robert told the police that the man who set the trap chased him into the trap and was later collected by another man. They drove away.

A month later the police are still searching for the man but they told Robert that he must have left the country. Robert was disappointed but once he got out of the hole was the main thing to him.

The Haunted Wishing Well

Once there were two best friends. Alex, a little girl and Jay a little boy. They loved to go to a wishing well every day. Alex was going to Jay's house today. When she got there they played for half an hour. Then Alex said "Let's go to the wishing well." Ok, but first we have to write our wishes on a piece of paper and then we can go." Said Jay. So they wrote their wishes down and went.

When they got there they put their wishes in. BUT... Jay had leaned in too far! Well that's what Alex thought. Jay had actually got sucked in by the well..! Alex didn't know what happened... for three seconds. Did you guess what happened next? Alex jumped in..! But she didn't see Jay... but then she got sucked up too. Under the water it was so-so black? Or no it was night and she saw... JAY! Or did she..? Well read the rest of the story. It was an-ummm a SHARK!!! Alex swam as fast as she could! But just as he went to swallow her up... BAMM! She woke up it was just a dream or was it..?! When she looked at the floor there was her wish her toy SHARK!

DANGER

Not many years ago, there were three children, each of them were brothers and sisters. One day their Mom and Dad decided to go on a holiday for Halloween. They would be staying in a hotel for a week. The children were overjoyed as they were going to be home alone.

After much waving and goodbyes the children decided to go inside. They celebrated and ate sweets until they got sick. They didn't even get to sleep. After all the partying they realized they had ran out of food. So they headed to the shop to get more food. When they arrived at the shop, the shopkeeper announced they were closing soon. So they hurried around buying anything under five euro. When they got to the till, they noticed something strange about the person in front of them...

He had a dark red eye and a light blue eye and his hands looked like claws. By accident the youngest bumped into him, he turned around and gave them a horrible look. Then he spotted keys in the oldest's pocket. He slipped his hands into the boy's pocket and slid the keys of the house out. Just then the youngest boy spotted him running away with the keys. He started yelling to stop, but he kept running faster and faster. They told the shopkeeper to call the police. The shopkeeper rang the police, but there was no answer, so he left a message. So they chased after them at 30 miles an hour.

At last they heard sirens coming from a distance; they thought it was the police. It was actually the police chasing after another robber. The children felt fed up. Just then the oldest reached in his pocket and remembered about the spare key that their Mom was blabbering about. He showed the other two the key and they started jumping up and down. When they were done the three of them raced to the house. Just then they saw the same beast from the shop in their house. He turned around and glared at the kids, he came closer and closer.

Next thing there was a knock on the door; it was the police with a "Wanted" poster that looked just like him. After that they took him to jail.

The next day Mom and Dad came back from their holidays and the kids were super happy. A few months later they saw in the newspaper that the previous night he broke out of jail and was seen in their neighbourhood!

One Spooky Night

One spooky night in a small town called Chillville, Billy the police officer was working for the night. Billy was a mean and cruel man. He didn't like working in Chillville. Everyone was afraid of him.

At eight o' clock he went on a drive around town. Everything was quiet until he spotted something strange. He went to check was if everything was okay. Then he found a skeleton dead in the garden. It woke up. Billy just walked past. It was really mean. Billy took the skeletal to jail and locked him up there.

The next day he found a dead body in the graveyard. They went back to the police station. They checked was the skeleton there but he wasn't there. They checked was he at the graveyard too and he was so they carried him back to the police station. They locked him in a cell until Halloween night when he will be released again.

Haunted Neighbour

One day Max, Greg and Aaron were walking. Aaron and Max walked home but before Greg walked home he heard screams coming from the neighbour's house. He looked in the window and he saw his neighbour doing very strange things. He was locking his basement door. He heard screaming coming from the basement. The neighbour went into the kitchen. Greg said "This is my chance" so he tip toed to the door. When he walked in, he saw light. He went towards the light. There were candles on the floor. He realised that someone lived in the basement. There was a dark hallway. He took two steps into the dark hallway and the neighbour was behind him. Greg ran away very fast. Greg turned left and turned right and they were both a dead end. Then the neighbour said "You will never see the light again".

One year later, Max and Aaron were walking across the street. Three boys walked past them and then they pushed them into a very big house that looked very sinister. The three boys said "Go into the house". Max and Aaron said "No". But the three boys said "What, are you scared?" Max and Aaron said "Fine but you have to come too". "Ok" said the three boys. When they went in, the doors closed behind them. They continued walking. Max took the first step into the house and the room turned dark. Aaron said "Who turned off the lights?" The lights turned on again and Max had disappeared. All the three boys disappeared too. Aaron ran to the exit but then the neighbour grabbed him and threw him into a dark room. Aaron then woke up in bed and thought it was just a dream but then he looked out at the street and there was a big house. There was a dark figure in front of him. The dark figure told him to go into the big house. He went to the big house and the dark figure told him to go upstairs and go left. He went upstairs and grabbed the hammer. The dark figure told him to take the nails off the door and to get the key in the kitchen cupboard. Aaron removed the nails and got the key and unlocked the door. He saw his friends trapped including the three boys and two other people. The dark figure guided them out of the house. They all went back home.

THE HAUNTED HOUSE

One horrible night there were two boys called Dara and Leo lost in a forest. They saw a house and they ran to it. They went inside. The door closed after them. They ran to the door and tried to open it. It was locked. They turned around and saw a snake. They ran down the hall. Then they came to end of the hall. They heard a noise a bit like somebody talking. They peeped in a hole in the door. Then they saw a man with a gun and the snake. The man turned around. They ducked. The man shouted. They ran. The man ran after them. He started to shoot at them. He hit and killed Dara. Leo kept on running. He turned the corner and hid in a cupboard. The man ran by. Leo realised he was not in a cupboard. He was in a big room with a lot of bars. He was in prison. He heard a cough Leo shouted "hello" then he saw a man appear out of nowhere. Leo thought he was about 20 years old. He had another gun. Leo turned around and ran. The man shouted "I mean no harm, come here". Leo turned round and said "put down the gun, and then I will come". The man put down the gun and said "are you hiding from the man as well? So am I." I have been hiding from him for two weeks now." We need a plan "the man said. "I will go up and look for him and try and hold him still. Then you come up and shoot him. Then we will try and get out of the forest. Okay" "Okay" said Leo. The man went up. Then Leo heard "come on "Leo went up. Leo saw the killer man holding his friend with a gun to the head." I will kill him if you don't give me the gun". No the man shot his friend. Leo shot the man. Leo ran to the door it was open Leo went outside. He saw a light it was the police Leo ran to them and the police brought Leo home.

Scary Sleepover

It was Ciara's birthday. Hannah and I were having a sleepover at her house. We were talking about scary monsters before we went to bed. During the night, I got out of bed and told Hannah and Ciara to follow me. We went out of the window and crept through the forest beside her house.

We kept walking until we came to a huge dark building. We tried the door and it was open so we looked inside and we saw old stairs. The moon shone on them through the small windows. At the top of the stairs was a big black door. We opened it and found a table of sweets. The door banged behind us. We were eating the sweets when we heard a loud noise and footsteps coming up the stairs.

We were scared and hid in the corner. A huge giant smashed the door open. We kept very quiet and he searched everywhere. Then he turned and walked our way. We were so terrified. Just as he was about to catch us, I woke up. It was all a nightmare.

The Amazing Pair

One spine chilling night lived Yasmin and her horse Rosie. One night it wasn't the same as normal. After Yasmin had put Rosie in her stable she went to bed.....At midnight something bad happened. Yasmin heard something. She knew something wasn't right. She got out of bed. She went into the stable. Rosie was gone.

She was nowhere to be seen. Yasmin got Daisy her other horse. She went to the Demon Castle where Charles lived. She looked for clues. Yasmin found a note. It said: "You can't get me I took your horse. From Charles." Luckily she had packed a magic key. She went on Daisy. She got there finally and Rosie was there. She went in... When Yasmin wasn't looking she got trapped in a cage.

She took out her magic key. Yasmin opened the cage. Charles was asleep so Yasmin could get in the room. Yasmin also had a potion with her. She ran as fast as she could. Yasmin opened the gate. BUT... Standing in the shadow was Charles. Well well well.... Yasmin took out the potion. "Would you like a drink?" She said to Charles. She gave the potion to Charles. He fell asleep. Rosie was free. They had a party.

The Headless Horseman

One dark and scary night two boys named Harry and Gruffydd were walking through the forest of enchantment when they heard the clip clop of horseshoes. Out of nowhere a horse and cart appeared "Are you two lost?" asked the horseman. "Yes we are" said Harry trembling with fear. "Come with me to my master's house" sneered the horseman. "But our teacher told us not to go anywhere with strangers" whimpered Gruffydd and Harry together.

Suddenly everything went dark... when Gruffydd and Harry woke up they found themselves in a big, slightly lit room. "Where are we?" whimpered Harry. "I don't know but it looks like a mansion". As quick as a flash there was a flash of lightning and a crack of reins as a horse and cart left the mansion. Harry knew who the driver was "That's no horseman, it is the headless horseman" whispered Harry. "Come on! We can still catch up with him" said Gruffydd so the two brave hero's raced down the stairs through the gate and into the forest but as soon as they got through the gate something cold touched their shoulders and threw them to the ground. When they looked up they saw someone who looked like Frankenstein "This must be the master of the house" whispered Gruffydd. They got up and started to run. "Hey! I'm not finished with you yet!" shouted the master in a gruff voice but Gruffydd and Harry were too far away to hear what the master shouted. They were chasing the carriage. They ran all the way through the forest and the most weird thing happened.

There was singing coming from the carriage. Then the singing stopped. When they got to the village there were police men and the army. The headless horse man was put in jail and everyone was happy but not the headless horseman. His reign of terror was over!

The Tail of The Headless Horseman

One sunny day there was a town and three houses in it. There was a mountain with a cave through it. One day the town's people went into the cave but then they wished they never ever went into the cave. They had awakened the headless horseman and his horse. They ran for their lives but the headless horseman jumped onto his horse and caught up to them and stole one of the kids. But a man caught the kid and got out safely.

The next day when everyone went outside the town was wrecked and they went back into the cave but the headless horseman wasn't there. They looked everywhere but they could not find him. But then one of them found something on the walls that looked like drawings. Suddenly the headless horseman showed up. They ran out of the cave.

The next day they got lots of lights and put them on the cave and waited for the headless horseman. When it was night the headless horseman on his horse ran out to the town but he didn't see the lights and when he came out he burnt to shreds.

The Spooky Lake

One horrible day there were three children. They decided to walk to a lake they had never been to before. On their way there they saw a lot of bushes and got a little bit suspicious. They stopped for a minute and then they decided that they would keep on walking until they eventually got there.

When they got to the lake they noticed a man with a joker or a witch's hat on. In one hand he had this clock looking object and a stick in the other hand. Then they noticed a small, little pier and the kids, Emily, Rosie and Conor decided to walk on that small little wooden pier. Rosie and Emily did not want to go with Conor so he went by himself.

Conor fell off the pier and he drowned. Emily and Rosie were watching and so was the man. Emily and Rosie ran off and the man was prepared to run after them. He waited for a minute and then ran after Emily and Rosie with a knife in his hand. There was thunder and lightning. Emily and Rosie forgot their way back home. The man captured them in a bag. Emily and Rosie were screaming their heads off in the bag. The man brought them into a bush. Emily was fast enough to get away but Rosie was not. Then the man let Rosie out to take a breather but then Rosie ran off and caught up with Emily. The man decided to go get Conor.

Surprisingly Conor was still alive. He swam to the wooden pier and got out and started to run. Then Conor caught up with Emily and Rosie. All the kids ran home and had a cup of hot chocolate. Then they went off to bed and prayed to God that the man would never come back again.

Zombie in the Woods

It was evening in the scary woods. The zombies were in the woods were hunting for humans. The witches were flying scaring the life out of the people. The ghosts were going "Woo". The people had no choice but to run away from home and away from the woods. The zombies were chasing the people. The people were running away from the zombies but most people died.

The people who lived were very lucky. The ghosts were coming to get the people. The people were running away out of the woods but then the witches came and put a spell that made them to die. There were people still alive but there were more and more zombies trying to kill them. The people tried to run the other way but more ghosts came and then a pig came and charged at the zombies.

The pig's name was Mr. Pig .But then more zombies came and killed Mr Pig. More witches came and threw a die potion but someone stopped the potion and killed the witches. His name was Mark.

It was almost morning and the people went back to their house. All of them were invaded and all their food and water was gone. Half of their house was wrecked.

In the evening, the people walked away out of the woods and then the zombies came. Mark came and killed the zombies and some ghosts and killed one witch. Then more zombies came and Mark led the people out of the woods to the city to his palace and gave them something to eat. He said that they could live there .The people were so happy and said "Thank you".

Everyone was asleep but Mark was not asleep. He was getting ready to fight all the ghosts and witches and zombies. Two hours later, Mark went to the house and went to sleep. In the morning, he had a grand breakfast with all the people .

The Haunted Forest

Meet Mr.B.Chees, his wheelbarrow and best friend narrow. They live in a haunted forest in an old stoneage house. Their worst enemy Owmb, the zombie and his army of ghosts live in the forest too. They live in an underground cave.

One day Mr.B.Chees and Narrow were going for a walk. They were walking along the forest path, up the hill and down to the very dangerous river. Some people go into it but they never come out again. There was a bridge across to the other side of the river. When MR.B. Chees and Narrow were going across the bridge and up the hill they noticed something was different around them. Suddenly they started feeling dizzy. Than they fell down into Owmb's cave. Owmb was standing in front of them. "You are my prisoners now" said Owmb. They remembered nothing after that.

Suddenly they woke up in a cave with a little trapdoor on the roof. It was made out of steel and diamond. Hallow shouted "Mr B chees". "Hi" said a ghost from above the trapdoor. "What's up there" shouted Narow. "Something" said the ghost. "Is all our money that you stole from us up there" shouted Narow. "Maybe" said the ghost. "Look" said Mr. B.Chees to Narrow. "There is a crack in the wall big enough for us to squeeze through" said Narrow. Suddenly they were through the crack and into another cave.

This one had a bag in it. "This is the bag we Keep all our money in isn't it" said Narrow. "And there is a door on the roof that is unlocked" said Mr. B. Chees. "It probably leads outside" said Narrow. "Then what are waiting for" said Mr. B. Chees.

"LET'S GO!!!" . Soon they were back in their old stoneage house counting their money.

"WE'RE RICH AGAIN!" they kept shouting and they murdered Owmb.

The only survivors...

One dark night, there were 2 explorers. Their names were Ash and Nilly, They were both 12 years old. They were stranded on a desert island..."We've been stuck here for 3 months!!!"Whined Nilly. Ash wasn't feeling normal, he felt anxious...He felt the ground shake..."Do you ever stop whining, Nilly?!"yelled Ash. "Nope" replied Nilly. "Ugh" moaned Ash. Soon, later May 12th 2101, Nilly was still whining.... They were 21 years old. "Ugh so boring" moaned Ash.

Then in 2110 they got rescued! But they were not safe for long... When they got home, they saw one of the pumpkins was possessed! It had flaming blue eyes... pitch black clothes and razor sharp teeth... It had become huge in minutes!!! "You're the last prize".. Snarled the pumpkin. They were trembling with fear... Soon Ash had a flashback. "Water it or it will die", he heard in the flashback. "NILLY" yelled Ash. He dived to save Nilly from the pumpkins foot. "Nilly turn off the water supply in the city centre" demanded Ash. "Right o" said Nilly. Soon the pumpkin started to dry out!. That was the end, I hope.

The Ghost

Long long ago, there were two girls and a boy. Their names were Sofia, Rosie and Mark. They lived on a mountain in a wooden house. It was haunted. There was living with a ghost with them. The ghost was moving around the house day and night. He left slime and goo everywhere.

One night the children were in their beds. They heard a ghostly sound which woke them up. They all ran into the kitchen. They saw lots of ghost slime on the floor. They were terrified. They followed the ghost slime and found the ghost in Rosie's room. The ghost was five foot tall. The ghost was mean because he put slime all over the children and their parents. The parents were very annoyed about this. They said "I have had enough of this ghost".

They called the Ghost Brigade and they said, "We will come to your haunted house tonight". They found the ghost in the attic. Mum and Dad and the children were super happy that the ghost was gone. They never ever saw a ghost ever in their lives again.

The Spooky Lake

One morning Ellie, Lucy, Mollie and Seren were in bed sleeping and they had a dream called "The Spooky Lake".

In the morning they woke up in a spooky house. They heard a ghost creeping down the stairs. They were terrified. Then they started walking to the kitchen and suddenly they heard something so they walked more and then they saw a witch. They got so scared that they ran so far that they landed in a place called The Spooky Lake.

They walked in very quietly and it was very spooky. Oh they were very creeped out but they went further and further. Then they saw the witch again and they all SCREAMED so loud that the trees were not happy at all. So they ran and ran so much that they got back to the little house. They went in and they saw somebody really pretty and then she said "Come in, I've made you dinner". Ellie and Loosy said "Yay" because they were starving.

After that they said "Thank you". Then they left the house. Then they saw something weird in the distance. They got closer and closer but then they saw words and then they knew that it said "The Spooky Lake" so they walked in and they said "Hello, anyone home?" Nobody replied. So they walked more and more and then they saw three empty beds. They sat down in the living room and watched some TV. Then it was getting late so they went to bed.

Soon it was morning and nothing had happened so they decided to stay there and they lived happily ever after.

The zombie invasion

By Danielle Brinklow

One peaceful evening in a house of three.
Lived a fun and game Mom, a hard working
Dad a little girl called Mimi. They lived In a dark and spooky cottage in the middle of the woods. Her mother was a teacher and got a student from (well supposed to be from) Italy but he was a zombie in disguise”!

“Sweetie I’m having a student come over” shouted Mom, “ok” Yelled Mimi.
A few months later... The door went ding dong!
“I’ll get it” exclaimed Mimi. She was so excited to meet the student.

(Mimi answered the door)
“Hi” said Mimi “hello” replied Zed the student
“you will be staying in my room” ordered Mimi “I’ll go unpack” Zed mumbles “sure go make yourself at home” while the family ate,
Something strange happened ...
Zed’s Dad crept in “Zed remember the deal”!
Zed’s Dad argued. “Yes I remember the deal”!
“I need some help” “of course! Leave that to me” replied Zed’s dad ...

The next morning Mimi woke in shock.
“MOM WHAT IS GOWING ON”!!! .
That morning the walls were shacking and big bangs on the door. Next thing a trap door caught her eye. “What is that? Said Mimi “I don’t know” “let’s go” shouted Dad. So they hopped in and it led to a lovely Island that looked like it was never even looked at before and never heard of the zombies again.

THE SPOOKY TOWER

One spooky night I was walking in woods with Paulie the dog and Tabby the cat, when we got lost. Suddenly we came across a spooky tower. Paulie stared. Tabby went inside. Paulie ran in to play with Tabby but he had disappeared.

I went in and I shouted, "Tabby, where are you?"

When I went in a bit further into the castle I noticed that a door was opening. I screamed. Paulie jumped. It was a vampire.

He bellowed "Give me your dog or I'll kill you".

After that we searched for Tabby for a bit. Then suddenly an evil witch appeared.

She screamed "Give me your dog or I'll get him myself".

She shouted, "Dog, come to me! "

Then Paulie got hypnotised ...

The witch had disappeared.

Then Tabby appeared back out of the darkness with his Mum, his brothers Spots, Tingles and Bubbles and his sister, Bolt. Tabby's mum had another baby kitten. He liked me.

A while after Bolt sensed something. She found a cave... The witch was there. I shouted, "Give me my dog back."

The witch cackled, "No I will not, you filthy thing."

The cats appeared they went ... scratch, scratch, scratch.

"Okay I give in I'll give back your dog just get these filthy cats of me".

"Okay", I replied, so I did.

The witch said "Take your dog back before I change my mind and go".

I was so relieved.

"Come on", I said to Paulie and the cats. "That was a spine-chilling adventure" I said and we went home.
